

| Gmail @ Lewis and Clark Community College | |
|---|--|
| Where do I go to check my email? | http://www.lc.edu/gmail |
| Will my email address change? | Yes. Your new email address will be userid@mail.lc.edu |
| How do I know what my userid is? | If you don't already know your userid, go to BlazerNet to find out. http://www.lc.edu/blazernet Follow the link "LookUp BlazerNet ID" on the front page. |
| What will my password be? | Passwords are set to your birthdate (mmddyy) by default. You will want to change this after the first time you log in. |
| Will all my existing messages still be available? | Yes. For a limited time. You will need to log into your old L&C email account and forward any messages you want to keep to your new gmail account. This must be completed by October 1, 2008. The old email server will be decommissioned at this time. |
| I don't want to change. Do I have to go to L&C gmail? | Yes. Everyone must move to the new gmail accounts as the old system is at the end of it's lifecycle and will be decommissioned. |
