

Job Search Sites

1. www.careerbuilder.com
CareerBuilder is among the top job sites with thousands of job postings and resumes..
2. www.monster.com
From a numbers perspective, Monster continues to be the top job board site. Positions range from hourly local jobs to professional positions in just about every career field. MonsterTRAK is the version of the Monster job board specifically for college students and recent graduates.
3. www.realmatch.com
Realmatch works a little like an online dating service, but with jobs. The system matches you with employers and presents the results according to how good the match is
4. <http://www.illinoisskillsmatch.com>
A Program that matches job seekers with potential employers.
5. www.myfirstpaycheck.com
MyFirstPaycheck is a job-posting site for teenagers that provides advice and resources, including an interactive resume builder, to help teenagers have a more successful job application process.
6. www.coolworks.com
Jobs at camps, amusement parks, state parks, resorts and other cool places to work. Review openings by category or state.
7. www.snagajob.com
The largest and one of the best sites for finding part-time jobs and internships. Search by type of job, location and zip code to generate a list of jobs. Job seekers can fill out an online profile and also apply online.
8. www.studentjobs.com
US Government internships, co-ops, summer employment, volunteer opportunities and permanent part-time or full-time positions.
9. www.myworkster.com
MyWorkster provides a professional presence online (including a profile, resume, and video resume) as well as a means of networking with other job seekers and employers. MyWorkster also has job listings, blogs, and an instant messaging service.
10. www.indeed.com
Indeed includes millions of job listings from thousands of web sites, including company career pages, job boards, newspaper classifieds, associations and blogs. Any job search can be saved as an email alert, new jobs are delivered daily. Job seekers may also search job trends and salaries, read and participate in discussion forums, research companies and even find people working for companies of interest through their online social networks.
11. www.simplyhired.com
SimplyHired searches thousands of job boards, classifieds, and company sites. Advanced search options include type of job, type of company, keyword, location and the date the job was posted.
12. www.jobster.com
Search for jobs posted by location (city, state, zip), keyword, vicinity, and best match. Advanced search options include state, city, radius from a city, date posted, and multiple keywords or a phrase.
13. www.justposted.com
JustPosted also searches the web for postings. Job seekers can search by position title, city and state. Matching job leads are returned instantly via browser or email.