Mike Schroeder

Mike Schroeder accomplished a number of firsts as an athlete at Lewis and Clark. He was a member of the first soccer team at Lewis and Clark (1975). Schroeder was the first All-American in any sport at the College. He was a two-year starter at the center back defensive position and was a member of the 1976 team that qualified for the national tournament, which finished seventh. Schroeder's long list of athletic honors include National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) All-American (1976); All District ('75 & '76); All Region ('75 & '76); All Conference ('75 & '76); Team Captain ('75 & '76) and MVP ('75). Schroeder continued his athletic career at Division I North Texas State University.
