“The greatest movement for social justice our country has ever known is the civil rights movement and it was totally rooted in a love ethic.” --bell hooks

Articles

Link: Black Voting During the Civil Rights Movement

Link: Flight of the "Liberals" Across the Thin Ice

NOTE: "The article focuses on the development of a new American progressive movement. Despite the establishment of various movements, the group is still seeking for a loyal and liberal organization. In desperation, a group of these harassed intellectual individuals have tossed aside their remaining robes of prophecy and become Americans for Democratic Action."

Link: Pioneers of the Civil Rights Movement

Link: Fight the Power

Link: I've Got to Do Something for My People (1964 Freedom Schools)

Link: Freedom Bound

The library has numerous books and ebooks regarding these topics. Please see Liz or Greg for assistance.

Link: Learning from the Long Civil Rights Movement's First Generation

Link: To Sit or Not to Sit

DVDs

Call number: Video Collection 323.409 E97

Call number: Video Collection 976.178 F773

Call number: Video Collection 305.8 M974

Online Streaming Videos (Library’s collection)

The library has numerous books and ebooks regarding these topics. Please see Liz or Greg for assistance.
Jackie Robinson: Excerpts from Civil Rights Rally. Educational Video Group.

Web Sources

Civil Rights Digital Library: http://crdl.usg.edu/?Welcome

PBS Documents: http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/amex/eyesontheparise/sources/

Newton Gresham Library—Sam Houston State University: http://www.shsulibraryguides.org/c.php?g=86715&p=558148

PrimarySource.org: http://resources.primarysource.org/civilrights

EdTechTeacher: Best of History Web Sites: http://besthistorysites.net/american-history/civil-rights/

Georgetown University Library: http://guides.library.georgetown.edu/c.php?g=75457&p=491021

The library has numerous books and ebooks regarding these topics. Please see Liz or Greg for assistance.